The Principal's Message

Dear Seniors:

You like thousands of others throughout the nation have reached the climax of your secondary education. You have in this respect done well; but, because of the growing complexities of our civilization you must do better.

The laurels that you have won as graduating seniors dim with the fleeting minutes. You must search yourselves and your qualifications to determine your next step: "The tide of the times moves too swiftly to ponder at your leisure what to do next. Get started now!! Continue your preparation for living, and live!

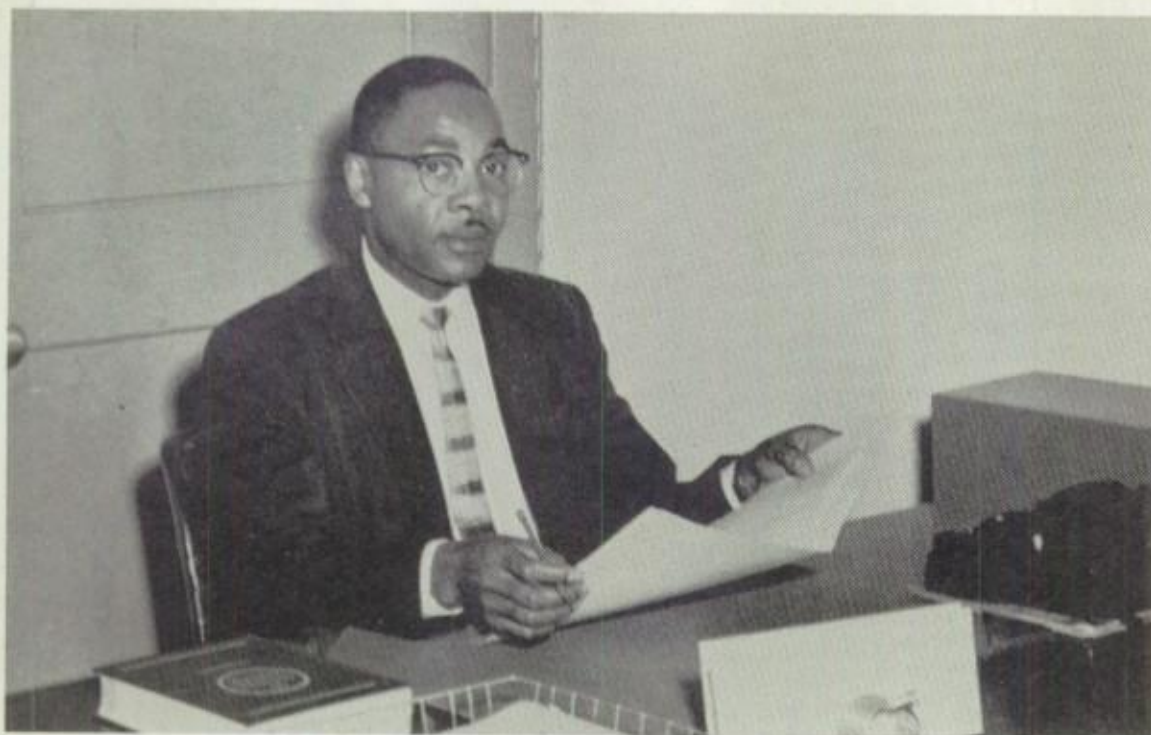

There are no barriers to success - only stepping stones to a better future.

I congratulate each of you upon your achievements. And, I pray that the Supreme Architect of the Universe shall bless each of you in your future worthy undertakings.

Sincerely yours,

F. H. Mebane

Class History

I

With the opening of school on August 30, 1957, came a group of eager-minded freshmen from Falkland, Fountain, and Nicholas Elementary Schools to join the freshmen of H. B. Sugg High School on their educational journey. The class, consisting of 117 students, was placed under the capable leadership of our advisors, Mr. N. Moore, Miss E. R. Cogdell, Mr. J. T. Evans, and Mr. D. D. Burge.

The extracurricular activities had a special attraction to us, and as the year progressed we became active in many of them. In the sports spotlight stood Willie Wilks and Willie Tripp with the old pigskin. Ringing goals for our basketball team were Helen Walston, James Maye, Marvin Langley, Willie Tripp, Willie Wilks, and Milton Staton, while our musical-minded students, Ephraim Streeter, Walter Barnes, David Dupree, Cornelius White, Barbara Turnage, Bernice Tyson, Peggy Foreman, and Edith Bemby became active in the band and glee club. Later that year, Miss Dorothy Spruill was an attendant to the Homecoming Queen.

At the end of the year the following received awards for their outstanding work in Homemaking, Civics and Mathematics: James Maye, mathematics; Barbara Williams and Helen Walston, Homemaking and civics; and Grace Horne, Homemaking. We were so busily engaged in our studies and activities that the year just seemed to glide away.

II

Having completed the first mile of our journey, we were now proud sophomores. Our advisors were Mrs. L. S. Wilson and Mr. B. M. Briggs. Our executive office was held by Peggy Foreman. That year Kay Sutton, Mable Bynum, Rosa Gorham, Allen Jefferson, Cornelius White, and Rogers Morgan were added to our list of musical-minded students. Carolyn Darden was added to the high-stepping majorette squad. Again that year we had an attendant to the Homecoming Queen, Gloria Streeter.

To the sports spotlight we added Yvonne Langley, Edith Bemby, Augusta Harris, Jimmie Smith, and Richard Gay. We were active in the clubs around the school, among them were the N.H.A., 4-H and many others. At the end of the year Barbara Williams brought honors to our class by winning first place in "The Homemaking Trade School Achievement Contest." She won a scholarship to Shaw University.

III

Came the third mile of our journey and we were Juniors. Our class officers were Jimmie Smith, President; James Maye, Vice President; Mable Bynum, Secretary; Edith Bemby, Treasurer; and Helen Walston, Parliamentarian. We were determined to make our class the best in the school. We began with the election of James Maye as Vice President of the Student Council and he attended the Student Council Workshop at Swansquarter. Carolyn Darden was elected assistant secretary. Thirteen of us were discovered to possess qualities of character, leadership, scholarship and service which enabled us to become members of the Crown and Scepter Honor Society. James Maye was elected Vice President; Carolyn Darden was elected Assistant Secretary. Helen Walston, Grace Horne, Barbara Williams, Barbara Newton, Peggy Foreman, Ethel Matthews, Mable Bynum, Tommie Ross, Lavale Gorham, Dorothy Tyson, and Mary Petway were proud and honored members.

Again this year we were active in sports. To the old gridiron were added Willie Nelson, Willie Wilks, Willie Tripp, and Jimmie Smith, while James Maye became Captain of the Basketball team.

Our number of majorettes was increased by the addition of Barbara Williams and Mary Petway to the squad while Carolyn Darden was made captain.

With the organizing of the Safety Patrol, many of our members took an active part in the organization. They were Willie Nelson, Captain; James Maye, Sergeant; Ephraim Streeter, Sergeant; Mary Petway, Sergeant; Mable Bynum, Sergeant; Helen Walston, Peggy Foreman and Edith Bemby.

We were determined to have our class represented in the Homecoming Day festivities and we did. Barbara Newton became "Miss Sugg High." Later that year we made another great achievement. Melvalene Olds was crowned "Miss May Queen."

The most outstanding social event of the year was the Junior-Senior Prom which we as Juniors sponsored for the graduating seniors. This event was built around the theme, "Moonglow." We danced to the swinging sounds of Mr. C. E. Knight's combo. Everyone was at his best. The boys were handsomely dressed in their evening attire and the girls looked, oh so glamorous in their formals. This was one of our most memorable events.

On Awards Day James Maye and Willie Nelson received awards for their participation in sports. Although we were active in the extracurricular activities, we were able to retain our high averages and these persons received awards for their outstanding class work: Ephraim Streeter, James Maye, Barbara Williams, Margie Williams, Helen Walston, Grace Horne, Mable Bynum, Dorothy Tyson, Peggy Foreman, and Mary Petway.

With the help of our advisors, Mrs. H. W. Evans and Mrs. E. C. Frazier, we had successfully completed the third mile of our journey.

IV

At last we were seniors, proud, dignified, sophisticated and of course superior. We knew that as Seniors we would have many responsibilities assigned to us, but we were willing to accept them with a smile. The members who had striven and successfully reached this fourth and final mile were placed in the capable hands of Mrs. E. C. Frazier and Miss H. E. Ligon.

Ambitious and determined we began our year's work. Because of their leadership ability, Jimmie Smith was retained as president of the class and James Maye as vice president. Barbara Williams was elected secretary; Carolyn Darden, assistant secretary; Helen Walston, treasurer; and Grace Horne, business manager.

By this time the sports' spotlight was almost entirely dominated by members of our class. Active on the old gridiron were, Bobby Joyner, Captain; Willie Tripp, Co-Captain; Willie Nelson, Jimmie Smith, Willie Wilks, Thomas Greene, Willie Tyson, and Richard Gay. On the basketball court for the boys' team stood James Maye, still holding his position as Captain; Marvin Langley, Milton Staton, Willie Tripp, Willie Wilks, and Jimmie Smith. On the girls' team were Helen Walston, Captain; Edith Bembry and Augusta Harris.

Our students retained their interest in music and continued to participate in the band and glee club. Making musical sounds for the band were, Walter Barnes, David Dupree, Ephraim Streeter, Allen Jefferson, Rogers Morgan. Barbara Turnage, Kay Sutton, Bernice Tyson, Mable Bynum, Rosa Gorham, Edith Bembry, and Lynwood Horne. Ringing their voices loud and clear for the glee club were: Tommie Ross, James Maye, Ralph Boyd, Delois Monk, Peggy Foreman, and Mary Williams. Still stepping high for the majorettes were, Carolyn Darden, Captain; Barbara Williams and Mary Petway.

James Maye held one of the most important positions a student could hold, that of president of the Student Council; Tommie Ross was elected vice president; Carolyn Darden, secretary; Helen Walston, treasurer. Other members were Grace Horne, Mable Bynum, Willie Artis, and Alice Fields.

The members of our class who were members of the Crown and Scepter Honor Club the past year maintained their high averages thus retaining their membership in the club. They were, James Maye, president; Grace Horne, vice president; Carolyn Darden, secretary; Helen Walston, Tommie Ross, Dorothy Tyson, Barbara Williams, Peggy Foreman, Mable Bynum, Mary Petway, Kay Sutton, Ephraim Streeter, Margie Williams, and Lavale Gorham.

The newly organized Marshal Club required that the members maintain at least a "B" average. Measuring up to these requirements and becoming members were, Peggy Foreman, president; Mary Petway, secretary; Barbara Williams, Grace Horne, Mable Bynum, James Maye, Tommie Ross, Willie Tyson, Jimmie Smith, Edith Bembry, and Dorothy Tyson.

Many members of our class became members of the Safety Patrol of which Tommie Ross was captain; James Maye, first lieutenant; Ephraim Streeter, first lieutenant; Willie Artis, lieutenant; and Helen Walston, sergeant.

Again this year our interest was turned to the clubs around the school, the N.H.A. of which Margie Williams was elected president, the 4-H Club over which Peggy Foreman was elected to preside, and the Social Science Club.

Our class was well represented in the Homecoming activities by Miss Edith Bembry who was an attendant to Miss Homecoming.

Looking back over the years we realized that our journey had been a long, hard and rugged one, but we were proud that we had not turned back nor stopped along the way. Our long sought goal, "Graduation," had now been reached. Deep within all of us we knew, "that we had finished but to begin."

A black and white photograph of a large group of students and two adults posing in front of a brick building. The group is arranged in several rows. The front row consists of ten students, five girls in skirts and sweaters and five boys in suits. The middle and back rows are filled with more students, mostly girls, some in uniforms and others in casual attire. Two adults, a man and a woman, stand on the far right of the group. The building behind them has a brick facade and three large windows with decorative X-patterns in the upper panes. The students are standing on a set of steps leading up to the entrance.

Each group will demonstrate various techniques which may be employed effectively at the grade levels under consideration.

Religious Emphasis Week Observed

Students at the school take time to give thanks to God for the many, many blessings which He bestows upon them. During the Religious Emphasis Week pupils reviewed the various ways in which they have been blessed. Classroom indeed proud and honored to extend a hearty welcome to three new members of our staff.

Enrollment in the elementary school climbed to the point where the staff has been increased by an additional teacher. Mr. H. A. Pulley, a graduate of the A.&T. College, Greensboro, and who has done further study at the same institution and at Shaw University at Raleigh, has been added to the staff.

Miss S. A. Woodard, who received her A.B. degree at Livingston College, Salisbury, majoring in vocal music and minoring in general humanities replaces Miss R. L. Flack, former music director at Sugg. The effect of Miss Woodard's energies has been heard throughout the community when sweet melodies of music have been rendered by the Glee Club under her capable direction.

My collective glands
will never forget your shorthand

I enjoyed shorthand,
although I didn't appreciate my grades

I hope that I will be as much rejoice in college
as I have made in your shorthand class.

all the events of the past never forget
you shorthand class

for 17 1/2

I enjoyed shorthand
very much. While continuing in college, I'll never forget the shorthand that I've learned in your class

"It hasn't been fun
but we enjoyed it (Grade)"

"If shorthand was my bread
long ago I would've been dead
It shorthand was my wife
I wouldn't have my life
And if I can't tell shorthand goodbye I'll hang my head and cry."

"No more short hand for me." N/A

Although I liked shorthand, I never did get too good

66-67-68-69-70-71-72-73-74-75-76-77-78-79-80-81-82-83-84-85-86-87-88-89-90-91-92-93-94-95-96-97-98-99-00

I have enjoyed
shortland, even though I didn't do as well
as I expected to do.

Yes,

I have enjoyed shortland and I am glad that I am not ending what I started. "Bad grades."

Yes

If I had to eat on shortland,
I would have starved long ago
"James Maye
I have enjoyed
your teaching
Yes"

"May all your days be filled with joy and happiness."

McLean

I did not take shortland, but I must say, the students in the senior class are not young, to worry anyone else about it.
But my junior year of typing was one of the best in my high school career.

Primie-Jeff Smith
President of 101 class

I will miss this!
Yes, but not the
1. (smile)

Yes

I have enjoyed
this class very much.
I will always remember
it. I have enjoyed your teaching very much.
Yes, I will miss this!
Yes, I will miss this!
